Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty at law to disclose to the insurer anything that you could reasonably be expected to know which is relevant to the to the insurer’s decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Proposal Included in “Policy”

Anything you state in this proposal will form part of the policy document unless we tell you otherwise. Before you complete this proposal you should read the policy, because it will tell you about the insurance you are proposing we provide and contains definitions of words used in this proposal.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

To ensure you do not incur any unnecessary GST liabilities in claim settlements, please ensure your Australian Business Number (ABN) and tax status are entered into the space provided on this proposal.

Privacy

Lumley Insurance respects your privacy and complies with the Privacy Act and the National Privacy Principles. A copy of our Privacy Policy is available at any of our offices or online at www.lumley.com.au

Confirming Transactions

You may contact us or your adviser, in writing (which is always required if you are advising cancellation) or by phone, to confirm any transaction under the policy. Any transaction will be documented by us as quickly as possible.

Additional Information

If insufficient space is provided on this proposal in respect of any questions contained on the proposal, please attach a sheet of paper containing the additional information, noting the relevant question number and sign and date any such attachment.

You declare that the answers given herein are in every respect true and correct and that you have not withheld any information likely to affect the acceptance of this proposal and that you have read and understood the proposal and the policy.
