DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

This contract of insurance will be governed by Either the Marine Insurance Act 1909 ("MIA") or the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 ("ICA"). As the test of materiality is stricter under the MIA and our remedies for breach of that duty can be more far-reaching under the MIA, we set out below your duties of disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure under both Acts:

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE UNDER THE MARINE INSURANCE ACT 1909

Your attention is drawn to Sections 23 and 27 of the MIA and, in particular, that any contract of marine insurance is based on utmost good faith and in the absence of such good faith, may be avoided. Further, you have an obligation to disclose to us every material circumstance which is known to you and/or which in the ordinary course of business ought to be known to you. Every circumstance is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in fixing the premium or determining whether he will take the risk. If there is a failure to make such disclosure, we may avoid the contract.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE UNDER THE INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT 1984

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty at law to disclose to the insurer anything that you could reasonably be expected to know is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however, does not require disclosure of matters:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.
